'Very good rains'
 Arabica coffee for December dropped 1.9% to 123.95 cents a pound, undermined by ideas of Brazilian rains boosting 2018 crop prospects.
 Just in time, "very good rains have fallen over most coffee areas except Zona da Mata where volumes were not as good as South of Minas, Cerrado and Mogiana," exporter Terra Forte said.
 "According to Somar another round of rains is starting by the weekend," which will reach Zona da Mata.

'No other option'
 That took the sting from an observation by Terra Forte that "buyers abroad very active with many requests for nearby positions at very expensive differentials."
 "Those who have awaited for the last minute had no other option buy but to pay up."
 Indeed, Brazil's own market is continuing to show "producers only selling for immediate cash needs."
