Coffee Market Report

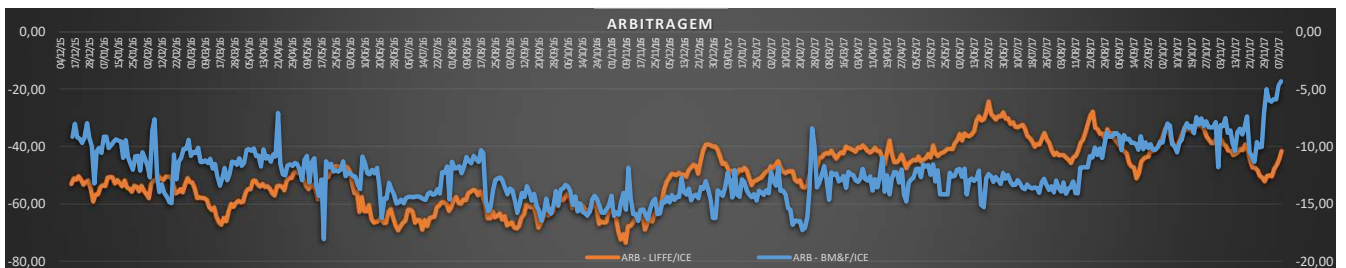

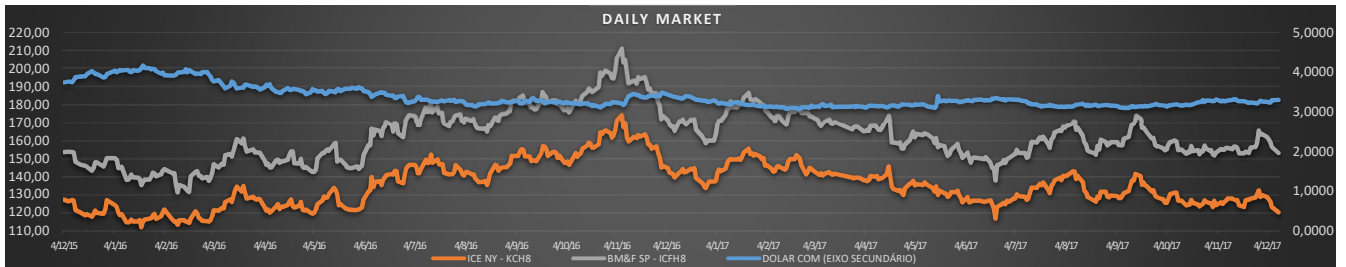

The latest Commitment of Traders report from the New York arabica coffee market has seen the Non-Commercial Speculative sector of this market decrease their net short sold position within the market by 10.61% during the week of trade leading up to Tuesday 5th, December; to register a net short sold position of 37,420 Lots on the day. This net short-sold position which is the equivalent of 10,608,404 bags has most likely been once again marginally increased, following the period of mixed but overall softer trade, which has since followed.

The latest Commitment of Traders report from the London robusta coffee market has seen the Speculative Non-Commercial sector of this market increase their net short sold position within this market by 4.89% during the week of trade leading up to Tuesday 5th, December; to register a net short sold position of 21,208 Lots on the day. This net short sold position which is the equivalent of 3,534,667 bags has most likely been little changed to perhaps marginally increased again, following a period of mixed but overall sideways trade, which has since followed.

The International Coffee Organisation have come to the fore with their latest report and while conceding that due to this year's small Brazil crop that the overall South American coffee production shall be 3.1% lower for the present October 2017 to September 2018 coffee year, that with a 4.4% increase in Asian and Oceania production, a 4.3% increase in Mexican and Central American production and an 4.1% increase in African production, that global coffee production for the present coffee year can be expected to increase by 0.8% to total 158.69 million bags. This report and with so far, a good recovery foreseen for the next Brazil 2018 crop and a crop that shall start to come to the fore well within this present coffee year, would be seen to be bearish to flat for market sentiment.

The Certified washed Arabica coffee stocks held against the New York exchange were seen to remain unchanged on Friday, to register these stocks at 1,937,643 bags. There were meanwhile 5,610 bags increase to the number of bags pending grading for this exchange; to register these pending grading stocks at 32,201 bags.
