COFFEE

General Comments: Futures were a little lower and prices are holding the trading range. The Brazil harvest is getting close to done now. Ideas are that the current production of 62 or 63 or more million bags can become about 52 million bags next year. Coffee areas in Brazil could be affected by the current drought that could hurt production even more. Many areas are dry now, but showers are in the forecast for this week. Vietnam is active in its harvest. Selling will be less this week due to the Lunar New Year holiday. Production in Vietnam is estimated less than 30 million bags due to uneven weather during the growing season. Producers and the industry are enjoying the Tet holiday this week.

Overnight News: Certified stocks are lower today and are about 2.478 million bags. The ICO composite price is now 104.38 ct/lb. Brazil will get mostly dry weather, but showers are likely today. Temperatures should be above normal. Colombia should get isolated showers. Central America and southern Mexico should get showers or dry conditions. Vietnam will get mostly dry weather.

Chart Trends: Trends in New York are mixed. Support is at 103.00, 102.00, and 100.00 March, and resistance is at 107.00, 110.00 and 112.00 March. Trends in London are mixed to up with objectives of 1600, 1650, and 1670 March. Support is at 1530, 1510, and 1500 March, and resistance is at 1570, 1590, and 1610 March.
