Coffee Market report

The coffee markets remain devoid of any supportive fundamental news, but with the Brazil Real coming back from the previous day's lows, there was apparently some speculative short covering activity within the markets yesterday. This accompanied by industry price fixation buy stops, saw the markets bounce back from the early negative track and take a relatively strong track for later in the day's trade.

The July to July contracts arbitrage between the London and New York markets broadened yesterday, to register this at 30.33 usc/Lb., while this equates to 32.65% price discount for the London Robusta coffee market.

The Certified washed Arabica coffee stocks held against the New York exchange were seen to decrease by 960 bags yesterday; to register these stocks at 2,437,372 bags. There was meanwhile no change to the number of bags pending grading for this exchange; to register these pending grading stocks at 1,489 bags.

The Certified Robusta coffee stocks held against the London exchange were seen to increase by 14,500 bags or 0.72% over the week of trade leading up to Monday 20th. May, to see these stocks registered at 2,019,333 bags, on the day.
