Coffee Market Report

The National Coffee Institute in Honduras have reported that the countries coffee exports for the month of May were 308,925 bags or 41.32% higher than the same month last year, at a total of 1,056,516 bags. This they say has contributed to the country's cumulative coffee exports for the first eight months of the present October 2018 to September 2019 coffee year to be 1.9% lower than the same period in the previous coffee year, at a total of 4,804,263 bags.

The United States Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agricultural Service USDA have forecast that Tanzania is due to see its coffee production for the forthcoming July 2019 to June 2020 coffee year to be 50,000 bags or 3.85% lower than the previous crop, at a total of 1,250,000 bags. This they say, shall be related to the production of 650,000 bags of arabica coffee and 600,000 bags of robusta coffee.

This report in terms of both the official new crop forecast and many trade and industry forecasts, would appear to be quite ambitious. As most forecast a relatively sharp dip in coffee production for the new coffee crop in Tanzania, with indications that it might struggle to exceed 800,000 bags. With indications that arabica coffee production might only be approximately 500,000 bags and robusta coffee production to be sharply lower, at around 300,000 bags.

The International Coffee Organisation ICO have reported that global coffee exports for the month of April were 4.6% higher than the same month last year, at a total of 10.73 million bags. This they say has contributed to global coffee exports for the first seven months of the present October 2018 to September 2019 coffee year to be 4.4% higher than the same period in the previous coffee year, at a total of 74.01 million bags.

The September to September contracts arbitrage between the London and New York markets broadened yesterday, to register this at 39.98 usc/Lb., while this equates to 36.95% price discount for the London Robusta coffee market. The Certified washed Arabica coffee stocks held against the New York exchange were seen to decrease by 1,893 bags yesterday; to register these stocks at 2,390,727 bags. There was meanwhile a smaller in number 320 bags decrease to the number of bags pending grading for this exchange; to register these pending grading stocks at 1,593 bags.

The Certified Robusta coffee stocks held against the London exchange were seen to decrease by 5,000 bags or 0.24% over the week of trade leading up to Monday 3rd. June, to see these stocks registered at 2,083,667 bags, on the day.
