Coffee Market Report

The latest Commitment of Traders report from the New York arabica coffee market has seen the Non-Commercial Speculative sector of this market increase their net short sold position within this market by 37.61%; over the week of trade leading up to Tuesday 30th. July; to register a new net short sold position of 32,570 Lots. This net short-sold position which is the equivalent of 9,233,451 bags has most likely been further increased, following the period of mixed but overall more negative trade that has since followed.

The National Coffee Institute of Honduras have reported the country's coffee exports for the month of July were 3,740 bags or 0.54% lower than the same month last year, at a total of 684,453 bags. This has contributed to the country's cumulative coffee exports for the first ten months of the present October 2018 to September 2019 coffee year to total 6,280,889 bags, which is a figure that seemingly sets the country on target to achieve exports in excess of 7 million bags for the present coffee year.

The International Coffee Organisation ICO have reported that world coffee exports for the month of June were 2.83% higher than the same month last year, at a total of 10.9 million bags. This they say has contributed to the cumulative global coffee exports for the first nine months of the October 2018 to the September 2019 coffee year to be 5,940,000 bags or 6.5% higher than the same period in the previous coffee year, at a total of 97.28 million bags.

The November to December contracts arbitrage between the London and New York markets broadened on Friday; to register this at 41.05 usc/Lb. This equates to 40.36% price discount for the London Robusta coffee market.

The Certified washed Arabica coffee stocks held against the New York exchange were seen to decrease by 275 bags on Friday; to register these stocks at 2,355,609 bags. There was meanwhile a larger in number 586 bags decrease to the number of bags pending grading for this exchange; to register these pending grading stocks at 39,970 bags.
