The US Dollar registered a softer day against a basket of major currencies, contributing to the firmer day. The Coffee markets ended the day on a positive note, while the Sugar and Cocoa markets ended the day on a softer note. The Reuters Equal Weight Continuous Commodity Index that is related to 17 markets is 1.326% higher; to see this index registered at 378.6937. The New York and London markets started the day yesterday trading on a close to par positive note, both markets maintained this stance into the early afternoon trade. As the afternoon progressed both markets attracted buying support to see the markets trend positive, the New York and London markets gained momentum to see both markets close near to the highs of the day in very positive territory.
